I then went over & found Brown and he brought him in as stated by Crowley -

Crowley says - I found Brown as stated by Monroe & helped him to camp - He was drunk & truthless & ~~got~~ ^{Contrary} he carried him in - He was put in guard house by order Gen Carnahan - because he was ~~drunk~~ ^{Talky} & disturbing the camp -

Taylor says - Blaze told me about 9 P. M. that he saw Brown in Luring at Fremont House - That Brown was drunk & there would be trouble - I walked down to No 10 I heard a man was lying drunk near the shop Ed Mc Carthy said to me " I helped a drunken man along that far, with assistance of a city policeman & left him there -

Case of John M. Brown No 7-

Mr Green says - "I saw him at Fremont House during on Sunday evening - he was intoxicated & I tried to get him to come home with me & he refused."

Brown, the accused, says he was drunk in the city but claiming he was getting sober when he was found lying on the bank & could have walked by himself to the cottage - Brown's witnesses / Conspicuous - No 7 - says - "I did not see Brown on Sunday evening & don't know whether he was drunk or not

Ford & Brown, No 5. Reported for quarrelling & fighting at Dec 31 1888 the supper table - Brown's story & Ford's are directly opposite as to the trouble each charging the other with commencing it - The witnesses examined (except Jackson who favors Brown's side) do not seem to know which is at fault - Ford has a black eye caused he says by Brown's blow - Probably both are to blame - After hearing the case Jan 1. I asked Ford if he would endeavor to make friends with Brown. This, New Year day, I let the quarrel be forgotten - He said he would, but Brown refuses - the latter is vindictive & ugly in temper - Both admit that before this they have always been friendly
